

BREAKBULK

MIDDLE EAST 12-13 FEB 2024

Grow your business, change an industry

JOIN BREAKBULK FUTURES

PURPOSE:

To showcase true innovation at the show and present start-up companies and groups to highlight new and ingenious solutions to solve some of the industry's biggest challenges. Breakbulk Futures will also help tackle the industry challenge of the 'talent gap' by inviting students to engage with the space and discover what opportunities and roles are available to them in the industry.

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

We're looking for companies and groups with fantastic ideas across the maritime, logistics, and breakbulk/project cargo sectors who have an innovative product or service that they would like to showcase to the Breakbulk Middle East audience.

WHY GET INVOLVED?

Being involved in Breakbulk Futures is the perfect platform for gaining exposure for your company and presenting yourself in front of thousands of industry leaders from maritime transport to ports, terminals, EPC's, manufacturers, logistics services and much more! We will also be holding dedicated sessions bringing industry and start-ups together to work on open innovation and look for real opportunities!

CRITERIA:

- Startup company
- Received first round/initial funding
- Operating in the maritime/logistics/supply chain space

PROPOSAL:

- Start-up companies/groups to submit their interest to be part of Breakbulk Futures to olivia.stephenson@hyve.group by 14th December
- BBME Advisory Board will review submissions for relevance and innovation
- Successful companies will be offered a plinth (small tabletop) at Breakbulk Middle East in the Breakbulk Futures area where they can place their product/business cards and be present at the show to showcase their company.
- We will curate dedicated content sessions in the space including pitches.
- Participation is offered free of charge for selected companies, we just ask that selected companies sign an agreement confirming their attendance.
