AIRPORT TRANSFERS

Moscow has 4 international airports:

Sheremetyevo, Domodedovo, Vnukovo and Zhukovsky.

Due to the traffic in Moscow, the fastest way to get from the airport to your hotel or exhibition venue is by public transport.

You can take the Aeroexpress train from the airport to one of Moscow's main railway stations and then take the metro or a taxi.

For trips within the city, we recommend using the metro.

The train from Domodedovo arrives at Paveletsky station, from Sheremetyevo to Belorussky station, and from Vnukovo to Kievsky station. From Zhukovsky Airport you can take an airport shuttle bus.

If you prefer to use a taxi, we recommend using Gett or Yandex Taxi. The average price for a taxi journey to and from the airports is around $23-38/£18-30.

THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT RUSSIA

Climate:

It can get very cold in winter and very hot in summer in Russia, but most importantly, it is very changeable. Please check the weather forecast before your trip.

Cuisine:

Russian cuisine has a lot to offer and is well worth exploring. From the list above Traktir Pozharskogo offers Russian cuisine.

Language:

English is not widely spoken in Russia, even in tourist areas. We recommend downloading offline translators and dictionaries.

Culture:

As a fairly traditional society, Russia has certain rules and expectations that are followed. For example, when visiting Russian Orthodox churches women should cover their heads and wear long skirts (trousers are mostly allowed) and men should wear long trousers and remove any headwear. Dressing smartly is also important in theatres and some restaurants.

We hope you will have a pleasant stay in Moscow!
