

Being held at Tüyap Fair, Convention and Congress Center, the highly anticipated meeting point of the industry of food products and technologies, 27th WorldFood İstanbul is continuing at full speed!

Famous Chef Rafet İnce Showcased His Culinary Skills with Live Food Shows at 27th WorldFood İstanbul!

International Food Products & Processing Technologies Exhibition-WorldFood İstanbul, the program of which include important names from the category of logistics solutions and health products as well as the sector professionals such as producers, wholesalers, retailers, and importers operating in the food and beverage industry, has entered its third day with high participation of visitors and interesting food shows of the famous chefs. Within the scope of the program, Chef Rafet İnce made his mark on the exhibition with the presentations he made for the visitors.

Famous Chef Rafet İnce provided unforgettable moments for the visitors with his shows on the third day of the exhibition

On the third day of the exhibition, Chef Rafet İnce fascinated all the exhibitors with his culinary skills employed in the show kitchen. Exhibitors had the opportunity to see many different stages from food preparation to presentation, had a pleasant time during the show, and got the chance to taste the prepared meals afterwards.

Entering its third day, 27. WorldFood İstanbul will continue with “Meat Cooking Techniques” Recipe Workshop with Chef Fevzi Şener; “Using Walnuts in Professional Kitchens” Tasting Event with Chef Emrah Fandaklı, and "Discovery Of New Tastes With Guest Products In Turkish Cuisine" session including many chefs who are experts in their respective fields.